

NATIONAL NEWS

US economy plunges

Tags: 9AM Show, coronavirus,

Would you like to receive breaking news alerts from WRAL.com?

SUBSCRIBE

NOT NOW

WRAL NEWS

The U.S. reported its gross domestic product, or GDP, from April to June and it shows the economy shrank a record 32.9%. Professor Campbell Harvey with Duke University's Fuqua School of Business joined WRAL News to talk about the new economic numbers and the risks Americans are facing as a result.

Reporter: Lena Tillett

Producer: Valerie Aguirre

1:20 p.m. Thursday

Show Transcript

MORE ON THIS

- 🔗 Trump offers, Democrats reject fix for $600 jobless benefit
- 🔗 Dow and S&P 500 sink after economic data deluge
- 🎥 Congress battles over relief as US deaths from coronavirus reach 150,000
- 🎥 'Our bills are still due:' Official expresses frustrations over latest restrictions for bars
- 🎥 'I'm not sure how many more blows we can take'

We Recommend

Check your voter registration status today

Promoted by People's Power Grab

Donations needed from North Carolina to re-elect Nancy Pelosi

Promoted by pelosiforcongress.org

[Pics] Woman sues teen over fence fire, so he leaks her photos

Promoted by WorldLifeStyle

Flood-prone Rocky Mount prepares for Tropical Storm Isaias

Swimmers brave rough surf on Kure Beach

Dash cam footage of Roxboro police officer shooting a man on Friday

Recommended by

