

UNESCO WHC Whos Who.

Excerpts from UNESCO WJC releases. UNESCO could help raise funds (see red section below). I can provide the .pdfs on request. Nick Gessler, nick.gessler@duke.edu (16 June 2021)

15 June 2021: First consultations to implement “Supporting capacity-building of World Heritage sites in East Africa” project.

Apparently a 33-member virtual (Zoom) conference. Their names are illegible due to the poor quality of the virtual conferencing photograph of everyone who participated.

6 June 2016: Inclusion of the UNESCO World Heritage Convention ratification in Somalia’s National Development Plan.

Yusuf Ahmed, Permanent Secretary from the Ministry of Education, Culture and Higher Education.

Yusef Ismail, Director General of Culture.

Yusef Osman, Professor, President of the Somali Academy of Science, Arts and Literature.

“Friends of Somalia Culture Group with international organizations, donors, NGOs, civil society actors, and individuals involved in the Culture Sector in Somalia, which UNESCO launched in 2015... it is scheduled for end-September 2016.”

27 November 2020: Somalia Develops a National Strategy for Culture.

H.E. Abdirahman Mohamud Abdule, Ministry of Education, Culture and Higher Education.

Abdiqani Ahmed Abdullahi, Somali Permanent Delegate to UNESCO.

Sagal Mahamed Ali, Advisor to the Ministry of Education, Culture and Higher Education.

Mohamed Osman Bulbul, Professor, Somalia.

Maria Zakaria Ahmed, Gender Specialist, Banadir Regional Administration.

Abdulkadir Nur Hussein, Chairperson of SOMASA.

Jama Igal, National Peace Building Coordinator (presented an overview of cultural heritage).

Osman Gedow Amir, Professor (presented an overview of natural heritage).

Mohamed Abdulkadir Ahmed, Professor (presented his expertise on cities).

Ann Therese Ndong-Jatta, Director of UNESCO Regional Office for Eastern Africa.

Ahmed Yussuf, Secretary General of Somali National Commission for UNESCO.

27 November 2020: Somalia seeks to strengthen management of its newly rehabilitated National Museum.

Jocelyn Mason, United Nations Development Programme Resident Representative for Somalia.

Ahmed Said, Director of the Somalia National Museum.

Karalyn Monteil, Specialist for Culture at UNESCO’s Eastern Africa Regional Office.

H.E. Abdullahi Abukar Haji Abdullahi, Minister of Education, Culture and Higher Education.

11 February 2020: Historic Visit by Director-General of UNESCO to Somalia to support human dimension of reconstruction through education and culture.

Audrey Azoulay, Director-General of UNESCO.

Hassan Ali Khaire, Prime Minister.

Abdullahi Godah Barre, Minister of Education, Culture and Higher Education.

Deqa Yasin, Minister of Women and Human Rights.